SMS Text Message Terms & Conditions

The District Credit Union SMS Text Messaging Terms & Conditions

By opting into The District Credit Union's SMS Text Messaging service, you consent to receive messages from us, including informational, transactional, and Marketing promotional content related to our products and services. Message frequency may vary based on your selections and interaction with our services.

1. Opting In
To opt into receiving SMS/Text messages, please follow instructions from our messaging service. By opting in, you consent to receive SMS/Text messages.

2. Message Frequency
The frequency of messages depends on your engagement with our messaging services. Marketing messages are limited to a maximum of 10 per month.

3. Fees
We do not charge fees for the SMS messaging service, but message and data rates from your carrier may apply. Please check with your mobile provider for details on SMS rates.

4. Opting Out
You may opt out at any time by replying "STOP" to any message received or by contacting us at 303-360-0987. After opting out, you will not receive further SMS messages unless you opt back in.

7. Accuracy of Contact Information
You are responsible for providing accurate contact information and ensuring you have the legal right to opt in the provided phone number. By providing your phone number, you affirm that it is a valid number under your control where you consent to receive messages.

8. No Guarantee of Message Delivery
Your carrier's service may impact the delivery of messages. We do not guarantee message delivery, and The District Credit Union is not responsible for any delayed or undelivered messages.

9. Safe Driving
Please avoid reading or responding to SMS messages while driving. The District Credit Union is not responsible for accidents or incidents resulting from distracted driving.

10. Changes to Terms and Conditions
We may update these Terms and Conditions at any time. Updates will be posted on our website districtcreditunion.com, and significant changes may be communicated by SMS.
